I never assisted the sun materially in his rising; but, doubt not, it was of the last importance only to be present at it.

H. D. Thoreau

MEMM '69

Every man casts a shadow; not his body only, but his imperfectly mingled spirit . . . It is widest at its base, which is no greater than his own capacity.

In today's ever changing world of big business, computer technology, and involved social life, the emphasis in teaching has been turned away from the teacher and has become more concentrated upon the subject matter. It is therefore refreshing in today's society to find an individual whose personal commitment to her beliefs lies so strongly behind the student that she may dedicate herself entirely to the education of growing minds. It is in this admiration of personal commitment of belief in the student that we dedicate Memini '69 to a teacher who has dedicated her entire life to the young . . . Miss Lillian J. Moggio.

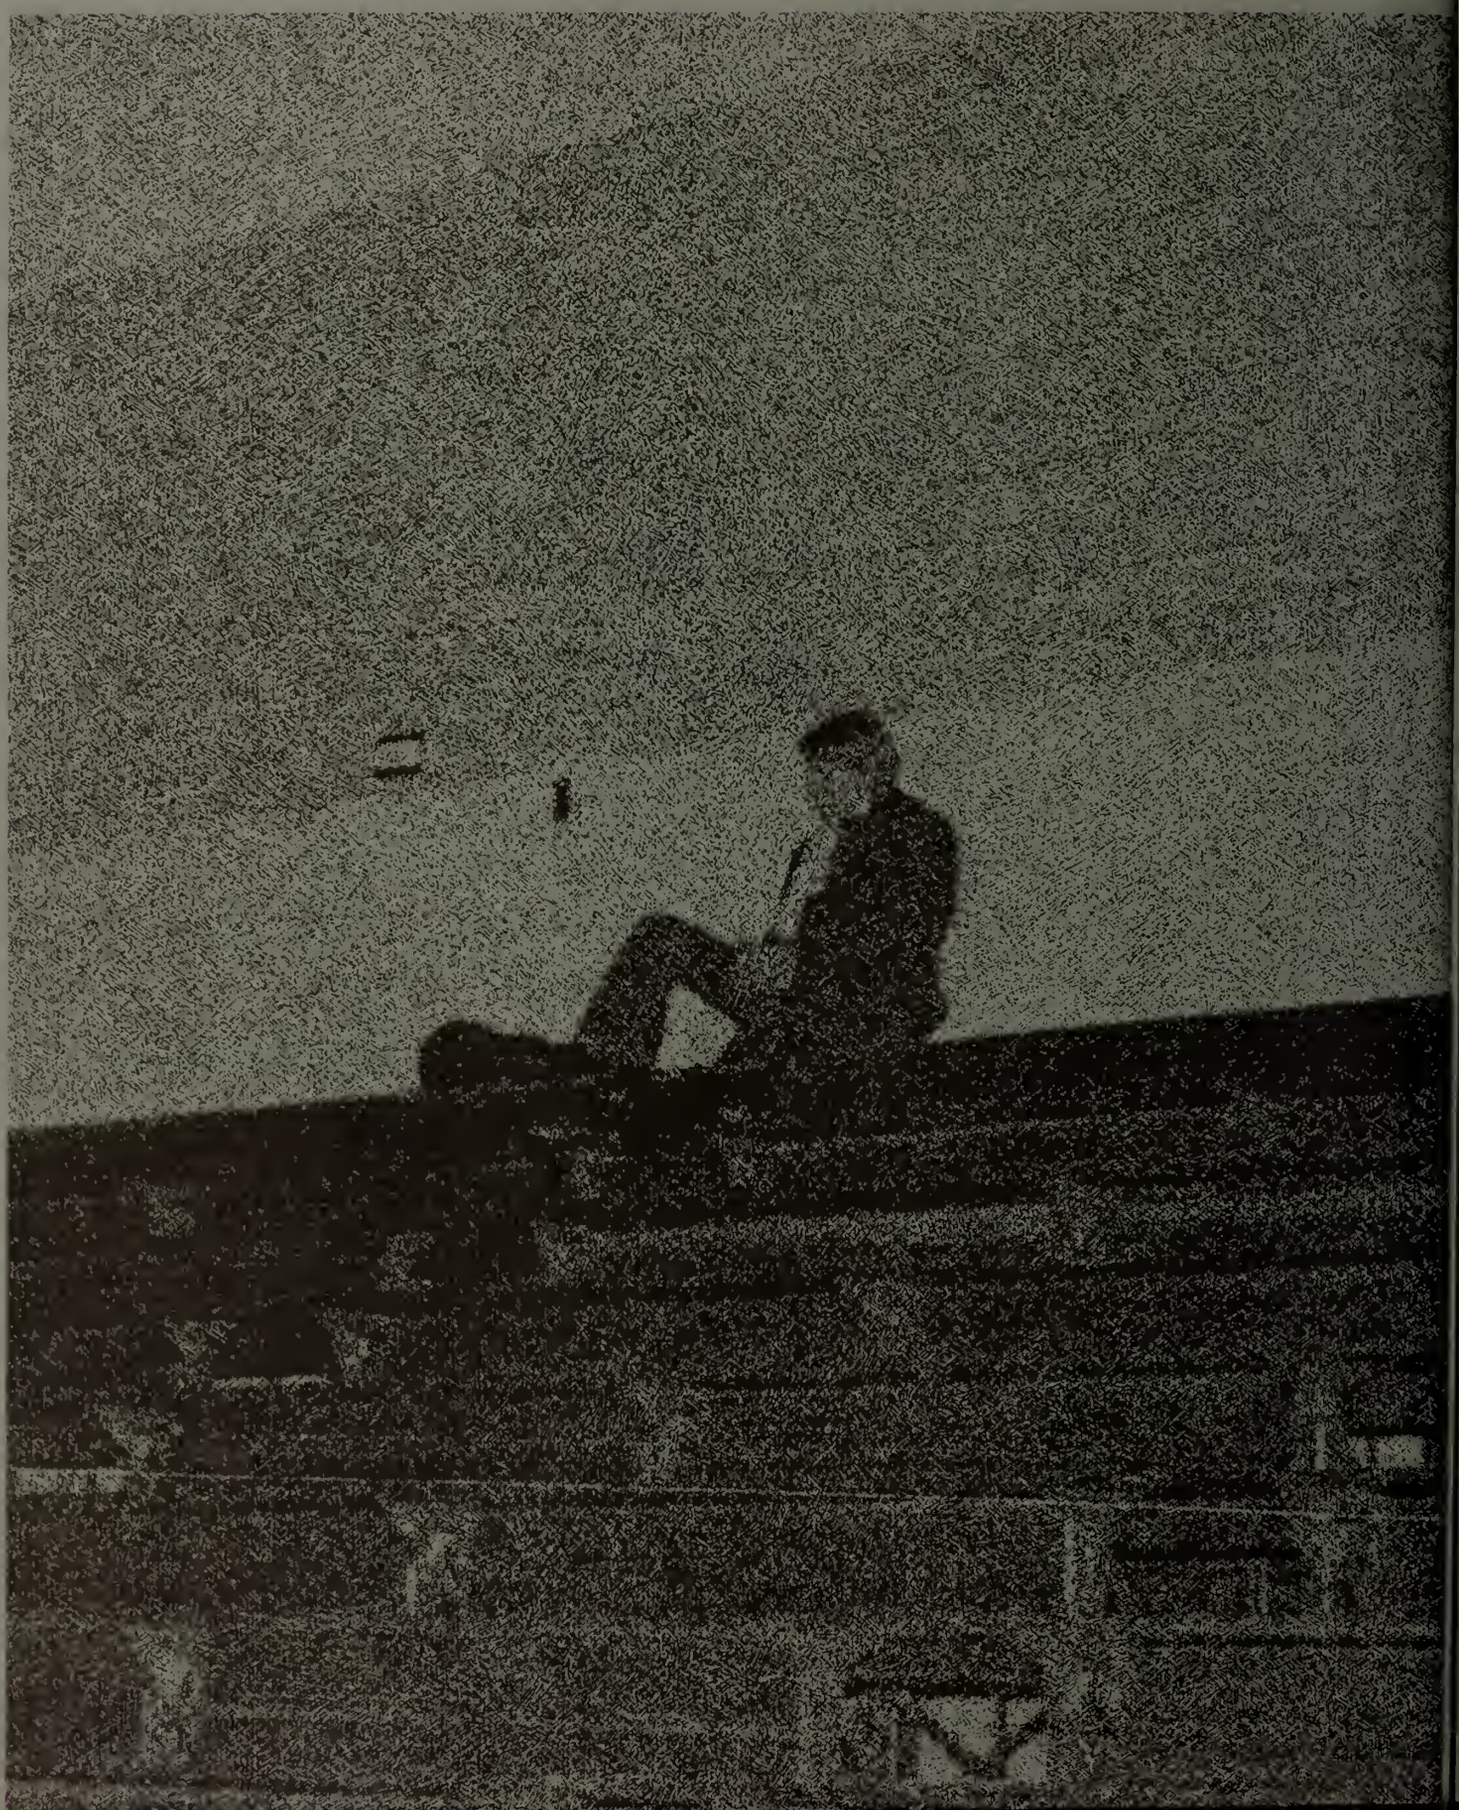

This is my work; my blessing, not my doom; Of all who live, I am the one by whom this work can best be done in the right way.

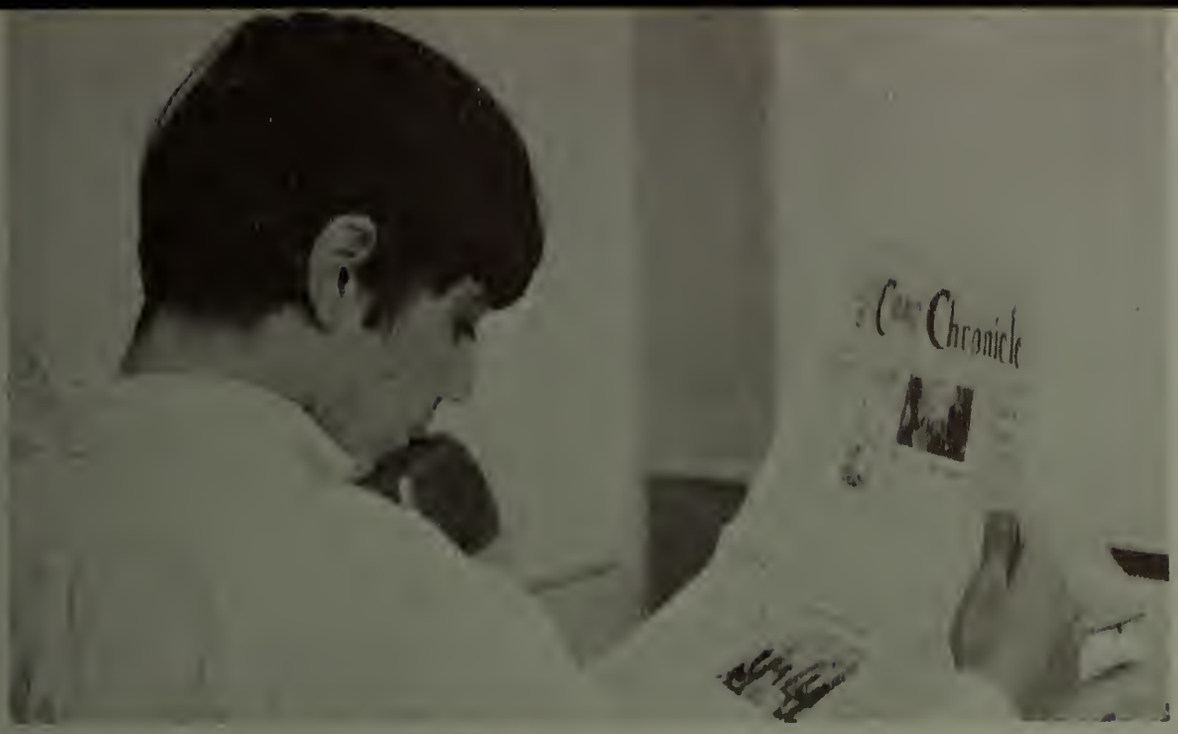

Henry Van Dyke

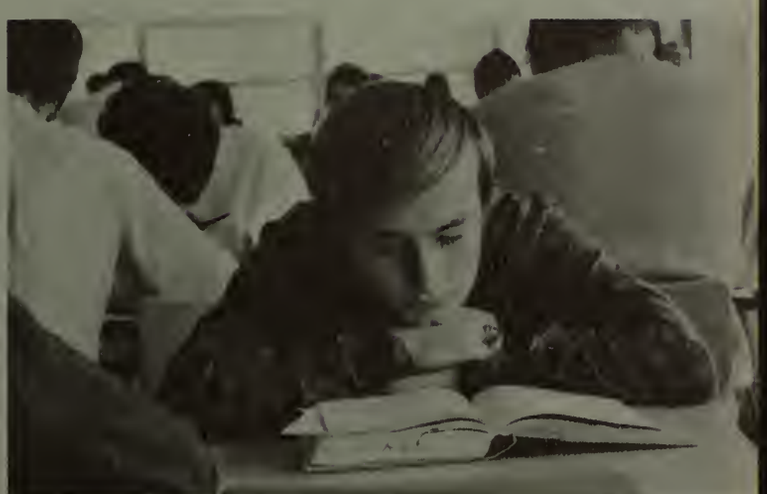

Man is that creature who is constantly in search of himself.

Ernst Cassirer

Chronicle

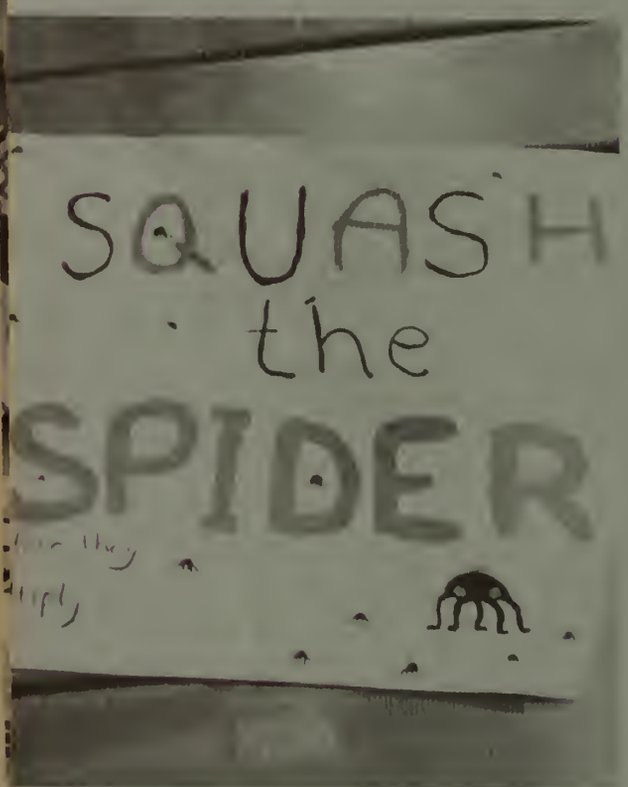

AMERICAN ELECTION POSTERS

Character is shaped by the expansion of the mind through discovery and the aquisition of knowledge.

Man's horizon stretches infinitely to the boundaries of his imagination . . .

The youth gets together his materials to build a bridge to the moon, or, perchance a palace or temple on earth, and, at length, the middle-aged man concludes to build a woodshed with them.

H. D. Thoreau

Do you remember when I was young?
Peppermint spankings and freckled fibs
I remember you.
Oh, and surely you don't forget my marshmellow mud-pie and a licoricestriped sky (which wasn't either day or night.)
I haven't forgotten.
And recall the naive harlequin fancies
Cellophane rain, which when it came, it came everywhere. And if I closed my eyes no one could see me.
As I now recall, they weren't so naive afterall.
And sometimes you would show me crocheted vines, quilted clouds and whipped cream snow.
Even then I knew you would have to go.
Now my opaque eyes are closed.
It's different. Instead of you not seeing me, it is you I don't see.
Revealing age has taught me to see blindly, And ironically I am its rag-doll, it plays with me
And youth is just a memory.
I even hate now.

HOOT'N RALLY

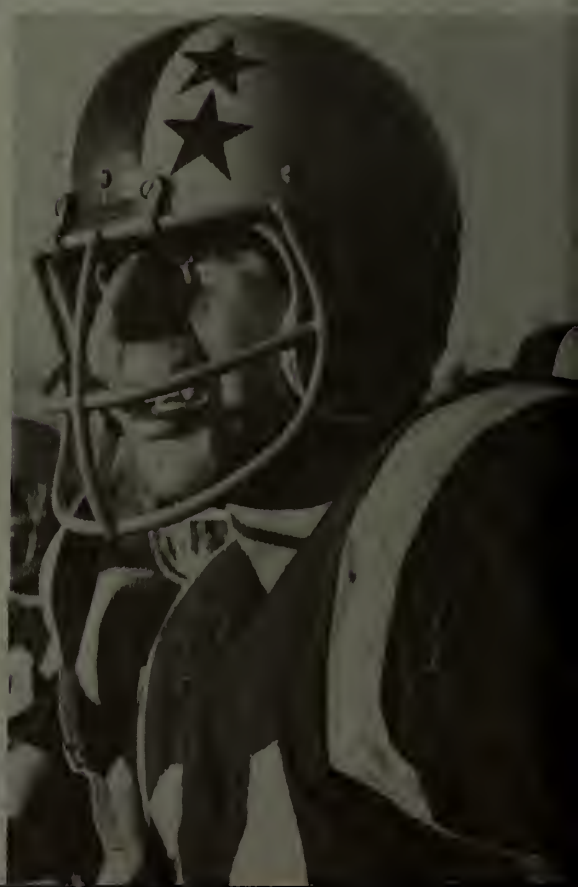

FOOTBALL COURT – Susan Champagne, Pat Jagadowski, Laura Whalen, Jeanne Masse, Debbie Smith.

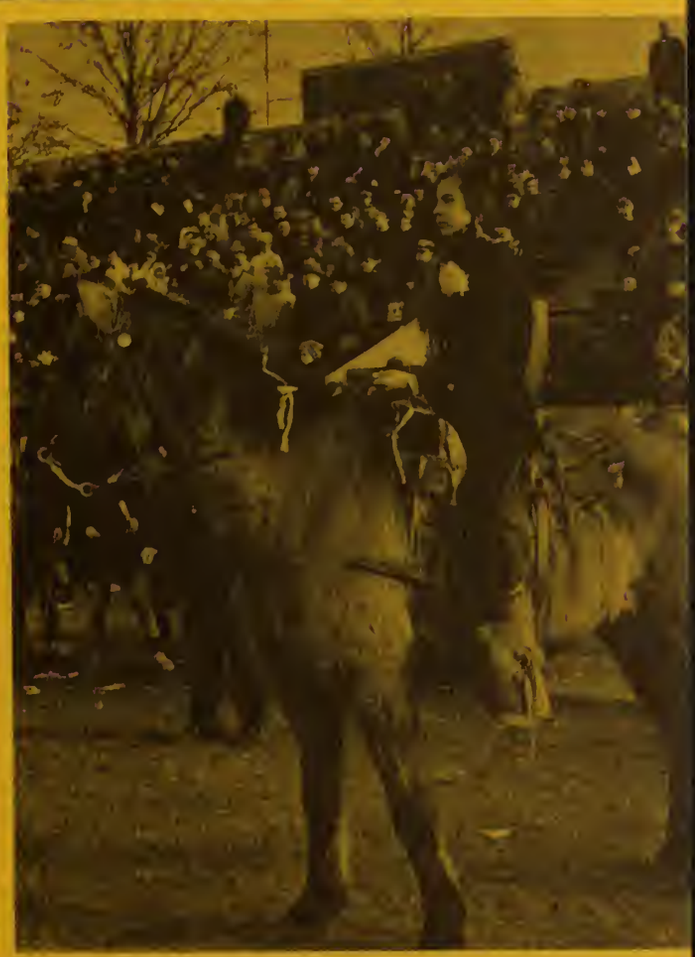

This is the state of man: today he puts forth
The tender leaves of hopes; tomorrow blossoms,
And bears his blushing honours thick upon him:
The third day comes a frost, a killing frost,
And, when he thinks, good easy man, full surely
His greatness is a-ripening, nips his root,
And then he falls, as I do.

William Shakespeare

To help your fellow man . . .
This is the essence of morality.

JARS

Winter Ecstasy . . .

Too late is tomorrow's life:
live thou today

Anastasia

Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player that struts and frets his hour upon the stage, and then is heard no more.

William Shakespeare

The surface of the earth is soft and impressible by the feet of men;
and so with the paths which the mind travels.

"Those Were The Days"

Once upon a time there was a tavern,
Where we used to raise a glass or two.
Remember how we laughed away the hours
And think of all the great things we would do?

Those were the days my friends.
We thought they'd never end.
We'd sing and dance for ever and a day.
We'd live the life we choose.
We'd fight and never lose
For we were young and sure to have our way.

Then the busy years went rushing by us.
We lost our starry notions on the way.
If by chance I'd see you in the tavern,
We'd smile at one another and we'd say . . .

Those were the days my friends.
We thought they'd never end.
We'd sing and dance for ever and a day.
We'd live the life we choose.
We'd fight and never lose.
Those were the days. Oh yes, those were the days.

Just tonight I stood before the tavern.
Nothing seemed the way it used to be.
In the glass I saw a strange reflection.
Was that lonely person really me?

Through the doors there came familiar laughter.
I saw your face and heard you call my name.
Oh my friends we're older but no wiser,
For in our hearts the dreams are still the same.

Those were the days my friends.
We thought they'd never end.
We'd sing and dance for ever and a day.
We'd live the life we choose.
We'd fight and never lose.
Those were the days. Oh yes, those were the days.

JUNIORS

By the time teenagers arrive at their junior year in high school, they finally begin to see what participation can do for a school activity. The Class of '70 has young people who understand what school spirit is and are adult enough to put some effort into making it a reality. You'll find them placed somewhere in full spectrum of school activities.

For instance, think of the well-toned junior class athletes who've contributed to Comprehensive's encouraging success with the varsity basketball and swim teams. Also consider our boys' efforts on the football, soccer, and hockey teams. There are a good number of junior fellows in on the action and some outstanding contributors who've devoted effort and faithful practice.

There are also a noticeably large representation of junior girl athletes on the cheerleading squad. They've also put effort into numerous practice sessions, which enable them to accomplish those impressive flips and splits seen at our athletic meets. In conclusion, both junior girls and boys participating in Comp's sports really work!

Besides in sports activities, Comp's juniors also participate in its musical outlet. Perhaps not so well appreciated as our athletes, these musicians strive equally as much and some have proven to be exceptional enough to have made All District Band, Chorus, and Orchestra. In addition, many of the G and F Clefs, Marching Band, and Symphonic Band are juniors who have really strived to heighten the school's musical status.

There are several other clubs and organizations to which 11th graders belong. For example, they are in the Art, Spanish, French, Latin and Cinema clubs; they constitute a large number in the Drama and Ski clubs; they are active members of the student council, Future Teachers, and other clubs.

Also, the class officers, seen quite regularly at school functions along with many other enthusiastic 3rd year "Comper's", should be praised for their contributions to the great spirit.

In essence, the Class of '70 does have members who have grown up enough to realize that Comp is not just a playground.

SOPHOMORES

During the year, one class shone above the others. The Class of 1971 dominated the scene here at Comp. It all started in the early fall, when we organized the sophomore class, a first in the history of our school. For our newly elected officers we held the first formal installation in Comp's history. This led the way for the other classes to declare that they, too, would make such an installation an annual event.

When Christmas time came about, once again we pointed the way for the others when we led through the entire canned food drive, only to come in second by 96 cans. All toll we collected 4000 cans, about a third of the record total of 14,000.

Our class has also done exceptionally well in other areas. Sophomores can be found in practically every sport, and members of our class lead the debating and chess teams. Many clubs have sophomore presidents and the sophomores sphere of influence is growing steadily. It is obvious that we have a bright future ahead of us under the leadership of Mr. & Mrs. Rivest. Some have been so bold as to suggest that we will become the best class to ever roam the halls of Chicopee Comp.

Rushing through the corridors of Chicopee Comprehensive High School trying to find the right homeroom was quite a problem for some students, namely, the Freshmen, the Class of '72. Meanwhile large groups formed with an air of superiority those being the "mighty Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores."

The one thing in common was an ineffable feeling of excited nervousness penetrating the entire student body. This was the long-awaited day when we — the freshmen would at last become students of Chicopee Comp.

The first few weeks were quite confusing with new teachers, new books, and new firends.

Within a short time, however, we had adjusted to these difficulties and are now accepted members of the student body and are looking forward to an exciting year.

Soon after we had adjusted to High School life, elections for Student Council Freshmen Representatives were held. Among the many freshmen homeroom representatives, Gayle La Roque and Gail Williamson were elected to the Executive Board. It was a new experience for the representatives to join in the fun at the workshop in October. Many joined the band, the drama club and other organizations. The Freshmen football and basketball teams both have hopes of becoming one of the greatest Varsity teams Comp has ever had. We all are looking forward to when the Class of '72 again joins C.C.H.S., not as lowly Freshmen, but as spirited Sophomores.

Vocational Course

The Vocational Course at Comprehensive offers a wide range of occupational choices to the student who wishes to immediately establish his position in the outside world through skilled workmanship after completion of his high school curriculum. Among the choices for boys are auto repair, auto body, welding, drafting, electricity, and cabinet-making. Power-stitching is available for girls. Participation in the full course in any one skill will so highly train an individual that he will be able to step into a position immediately after graduation.

The Vocational Course enables the talented student to perfect his skill in the field of his choice while receiving an adequate education in basic areas outside of his field of concentration. In this way, Vocational produces well-rounded men and women who will perform to their highest capacities while discovering their own identities in the reality of a modern world.

Business Course

The Business Course is a credit to Comprehensive for it produces the efficient and well-trained individuals who will inherit today's complex business world. Secretaries, stenographers, clerks, bookkeepers, receptionists, and others step from the Business Course s classrooms into positions of importance and responsibility in the world of work. There, they take an active part in shaping the world of the future. Other students take their basic training in Comprehensive's Business Course and then go on to business colleges to further prepare for the challenge of the business world. In college, these people polish their talents and assume the task of mastering more technical work.

Business students are taught the fundamentals of business conduct and are trained to handle difficult situations with ease, confidence, and ability. Through our business Course, the world is supplied with eager youth, ready, willing, and capable of improving the world they live in and will shape.

The best preparation for the future
Is the present well-done.

Distributive Education

Distributive Education, affiliated with the Business Department, trains students through experience. The Distributive Education students spend the first four periods of the day in regular academic study. After fourth period, he is allowed to put his academic education into practical use in a position in the business world. In the Distributive Education Course, the student gets a head start on discovering his identity in the world outside the school.

Among the positions held by the Distributive Education students are florists' assistants, clerks, shopkeepers, cashiers, secretaries, and office aides. Through Distributive Education, the student gains knowledge and experience in a practical way while earning money and gaining preparation for a rewarding career in the world of the present and the future.

H. Adams

To The Class of 1969:

It gives me great pleasure and pride to extend my best wishes to the Graduating Class of 1969.

During these past four years, as students at Chicopee Comprehensive High School, many exciting happenings have taken place. The future, without question will be equally exciting. The knowledge, talents and skills which you have acquired will assist you in the years to come. The challenge before you is great. All of you must continue to be aware of new knowledge in world happenings in order to preserve the society which we as Americans cherish.

As High School graduates, you now face many decisions. Keep in mind always the words of William Ward, who said:

"A success is one who decided to succeed and worked. A failure is one who decided to succeed and wished. A decided failure is one who failed to decide and waited."

Best wished for success, health, and happiness in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely,
George E. Membrino
Superintendent of Schools

To the Members of the Class of 1969:

Graduation from Comprehensive High School marks the formal completion of your public school education, the entrance into adulthood and your choice of careers. Along with this transition come added responsibilities, new decisions, new goals, new attitudes, and new thresholds to cross. Success in life and work is a matter not so much of Talent as of Concentration and Perseverance.

May I offer my sincere best wishes for health, happiness, Divine Guidance, and success in all your endeavors.

Sophie J. Chmura
Assistant Superintendent

To The Class of 1969:

I am sure that you already know that the commencement exercises of the graduating class really mean the beginning of a new phase in your lives. Whether you continue your education, enter the Armed Forces, or begin a job you will soon realize, as those of us on the other end of the generation gap realize, how ill-prepared we all are to solve or alleviate the distressing problems of the world today. Yet, we all must work on the problems in our own way no matter how small our contribution. Whatever circumstances allow you to do, it is my sincere hope and prayer that your contribution to the world will be constructive, honest, and filled with happiness.

William E. Mielke

To the Class of 1969:

How quickly time passes! It seems just like yesterday that you entered this school to start your high school education and this day marks the end of four years of formal high school education.

You have been patient and hard-working during the past four years and now are ready to go into the world as a full time employee or to an institute of higher learning. Whichever it may be, may I wish you success and happiness in every way. We hope you will have a spot in your heart for Comprehensive High School, staff and students. Please visit us from time to time and let us know what you are doing. We will be pleased to hear from all of our graduates.

Finally, please accept my best wishes to all of you for success and true happiness in the years to come.

Your Principal,
Stanley J. Ziemba

Graduation completes a distinct and significant part of your lives. You must now accept new challenges in furthering your education, in pursuing your chosen vocational goals, and in living up to the civic responsibilities and moral standards which you have been developing for the last four years.

I extend my sincere best wishes, knowing that you will continue your success far beyond the gates of Comprehensive High School.

To him whose elastic and vigorous thought keeps pace with the sun

the day is a perpetual morning

H. D. Thoreau

Thoreau once said "If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music he hears, however measured or far away." Recognizing that Comp is composed of individuals with diversified activities and interests, we, the editors, have created additional sections in an attempt to include all students. It is our wish that Memini '69 will hold a special memory for all Comp alumni. To all those who have dedicated themselves to achieving this goal, we extend our appreciation . . .

Student Council

This year the Student Council experimented with a new program of representation whereby one representative and one alternate was chosen from each homeroom, along with an Executive Board of two representatives from each class. Presiding over both groups were officers elected by the entire student body. This system was originated in order to provide a better means of communication between the student body and the Council. Among the traditional activities sponsored by the Student Council were the Get-Acquainted Dance, the election of the Football Queen and her Court, the Christmas Canned Food Drive, and fund-raising for various charities. However, the Student Council did not tie itself to tradition. In fact, several new activities were sponsored, the first being a workshop held at Camp Woronoco for all Council members. The Student Council established Pride Week which consisted in Pride in Country, Pride in Dress, Pride in Activities, Pride in Class, and Pride in School. Also held for the first time was the Winter Carnival consisting of two days of various activities which was concluded by a folk concert. This year a long-held dream became a reality when the school store was established. As always, the Student Council concluded the busy year by awarding a scholarship to a deserving Senior.

Band

There are two bands, Marching and Symphonic. The Marching Band, which is probably the greatest public relations group of the school, provides half-time entertainment at school football games and participates in the Holyoke St. Patrick's Day Parade and the Chicopee Memorial Day Parade. The Marching Band also enters competitions at which they compete with other high school bands.

The Symphonic Band, which for too long has been kept out of the public view, now puts on two concerts, one in winter and one in late spring. It also performs with the Chicopee High School Concert Band at a Christmas Concert and a Spring Concert. In addition to concerts, the Symphonic Band participates in the Western Massachusetts Music Festival.

The members of the staff and student body here at Comp have much to be proud of due to the accomplishments of the school band.

T.V. Club

Although this is only the second year that the Photography Club has been an organized club, it is rapidly advancing to become one of the best clubs at Comp. Fortunate to have several Seniors who are experienced in photography to guide them, the Photography Club meets once a week to discuss the latest photographic techniques and to develop and print pictures the members have taken. Under the direction of Mr. Fleury, an expert photographer himself, the club hopes to enrich students' understanding and appreciation of photography, and to advance the position of photography at Comp.

Now Club

The "Now" Club hopes to achieve a rapport between the cultural world and the high school student of today. Since most of the classical studies are concerned with the past culture, the "Now" Club serves a meaningful purpose in the interpretation of the "now" world of art, music, and literature. Thus, hopefully, this club will give a student a better insight into the present as a creative world in which he can function in a significant, productive manner.

Chicopee Comprehensive's 1968 Soccer team had its finest season in its growing history. Finishing third in the Pioneer Valley League with an outstanding record of 8–3–3, Comp's team earned the right to participate in the Western Massachusetts Soccer Tournament. With hard work and much desire, the team fought their way into the semi-finals before bowing to a strong Ludlow team. By playing with a keen sense of competition, the whole team brought honors to the school. Honors were also bestowed on some of the individual players. Paul Bushey and Mike Brealt were named to both the All-Western Mass Team and Pioneer Valley League Team. Receiving second team honors in the Pioneer Valley League were Jim Domingos and Jim Hurley. Pat Lavesque, although receiving no official honors, turned in an outstanding performance guarding the net. Seniors who have played their last high school soccer are Paul Bushey, Jim Conroy, Jim Domingos, Bob Greene, Jim Hurley and Pat Lavesque. Returning for next year are Stan Letasz, Mike Jozefezyk, Ron Nentwig, Mike Brealt, and Bud Therien.

The team looks on as Rich Demers scrambles in the backfield.

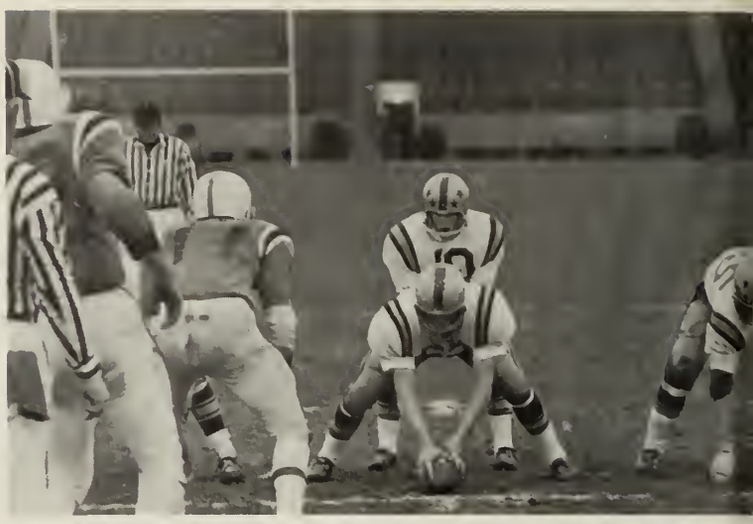

. . . And Spontaneous Emotion

Despite the fact that our football team ended up with more defeats than victories, the Colts displayed competitive and undying spirit which has become characteristic for Comp athletes. Ably coached by Leroy White and cheered on by enthusiastic crowds, the team withstood the rigors of a difficult season.

The team displayed consistent team effort as well as individual prowess throughout the season. Doug Mitchell and Rich Demers were the big men in the backfield while All-AA Conference choices Tony Konieczny and Dave Roy led the charge from the line. Backing these men were seniors Steve Hagan, Dennis Bieda, Gene Pellisier, Bob Dyl, Kevin Davis and Paul Davis.

Back to lead the team next year will be co-captains Bruce Lincoln and John Jaszek, Also back next year will be Phil Mercier, Chris Jez, Don Thompson, Ken LaRocque, James Marion and Dennis Robert.

Steve Jasinski — Captain

With a phenomenal win-loss record of 18–3, the Comp courtmen drove to a co-championship in the Western Mass. Valley League. Utilizing hard work and a desire to win, the Colts produced many come-from-behind victories in their quest for the championship. Overcoming a first-round upset by Holyoke, the team worked extra hard to defeat Holyoke in the second round by a convincing ten point margin. Paced by outstanding seniors Steve Jasinski, Dave Roy, and Stan Zieja and up coming juniors Joe Klofas and Don Osborne, the Comp team won a first round victory in the Western Mass. Tournament before being edged out by 2 points in the final six seconds of the semifinal game.

Co-Captain Steve Jasinski, the towering Comp center, led with a record breaking 24 point average and ended his high school career with over 900 points. Sharp shooting Dave Roy displayed his skill not only with his incredible offense but also with his defensive ability. Defensive genius Stan Zieja posed a serious threat to the opponents' shooters.

Even though the next year's team has great prospects, it will receive a heavy blow by the retirement of coach Dan Dulchinos. However, the team will be ably led by this year's J.V. coach, Mr. Davis.

Supporting a record of eight wins and 5 losses, the Comprehensive mermen swam to a fine fifth place finish in a strong Valley League. Excellent coaching was provided by Mr. Kijak, who was assisted by Mr. Goulet. Co-Captains William Nugent and Steve Bruny provided the drive to keep the mermen from floundering while the rest of the team showed excellent ability and effort. John Monohan and Steve Buchan, the team's breaststroke aces, preserved many a victory for the Colts, and Bob Bogdonavich was the leadoff man for Comp's medley relay victories. The strong Comp team made credible showings in both the Western Mass, and State championship meets finishing 6th and 14th respectively. Seniors Carl Poole, Bob McCarthy, John Monqhan, Bob Koerber, Steve Bruny, Bill Nugent, Steve Buchan, Keith Ford, and Bob Bogdonovich will be missed next year but the team has some outstanding prospects to fill the gaps.
